ANOTHER TRAGEDY IN POLAR REGIONS.

.... While ... the backbone of the continent has been pierced by the Panama Canal, and in a short time marine monsters will be passing from the Atlantic to the Pacific through Culebra mountain, the ice king is still defying man, and the shadow of the North Pole continues to warn him

Another would-be visitor to the apex of the plant-Vilhjalmar Stetansson-together with scientists and tism, and other dangerous col weathe steamer's crew have met the fate of Sir Franklin and others who have invaded the realms of the frigid zone.

As long as man remains upon the earth ever and anon daring navigators will attempt to make the northwest passage or climb the North pole, while others will lose their lives in endeavors to get to the summit of the Matterhorn. During the eighties an English expedition was fitted out for a trip to the North Pole. It was under the tutelage of the British government. and the most powerful battleships of the day were used for the expedition. After battling agaisnt storms, ice fields and icebergs for months, the ships were forced to make their way to the open sea and abandon the enterprise The ice king is still bidding defiance to man.

STUDENT MILITARY

CAMPS TO BE ESTABLISHED.

The great success of the two ex perimental camps of instruction for students held last summer at Monterey, Cal., and Gettysburg, Pa., has induced the War Department to repeat them next year, and a bulletin has been issued by the department giving the necessary information to young men and institutions who may be interested in the subject. The camps promise to be very much larger next year, although over fifty universities and colleges were represented by student delegations at Gettysburg in July and August last. The enthusiastic testimony to the value of such cemps by men like President Drinker, of Lehigh University, will add force to an invitation which of itself should make a strong appeal to young men. It is hard to imagine a healthier or more useful way of passing a vacation, or a cheaper one, as the Government defrays a considerable part of the expense, and the outlay on the part of the students is reduced to a mini-Reports Indicate Prosperous Year, Notwithstanding Increased Tax Payments.

Richmond, Va., Nov. 19 -Annual meetings were held yesterday by stockholders of the four railway companies which own the system beween Richmond and Washington. perated as a whole by the Richnond, Fredeicksbug and Potomac Railroad Company. All four of the neetings were formal, the actions of the boards being approved, and the old directors re-elected.

The first meeting held was that of the Richmond, Fredericksburg and Potomac and Richmond and Petersourg Railroad Connection Company, corporation which owns the line from Elba to Byrd street station.

Another purely formal meeting was that of the Potomac Railway Company, which corporation owns a stretch of one and three-tenths miles of the main line between Richmond and Washington across the marshes at Quantico.

The Richmond, Fredericksburg an Potomac Railroad, which operates the system, owns the track from Elbr station in Richmond for seventy eight miles northward. The Wash ington-Southern Railway Company owns the track from Quantico for thirty-one miles to the Potomac wards, just this side of Washington Both roads re-elected the old direcors and officers. Increased earnings were shown despite the increased tax payments. The dividend rate of 9 per cent was maintained
